

"High ability/high potential student" means a student identified by a multi-disciplinary team as:

(a) possessing demonstrated or potential abilities that give evidence of exceptional ~~very superior~~ intellectual, creative, or specific academic capability (e.g., intelligence quotient of 130 or higher, academic achievement scores on standardized tests at the 95th percentile or higher or other recognized indicators of exceptional intellectual, creative or academic capability)

Formatted: Superscript